

Leading Edge Associates, LLC
Contract Computer Programmer
Job Description, Skills & Responsibilities

Responsibilities

As an LEA Contract programmer, you will:

- Work with LEA staff to plan, create and design program code, enhancements and changes
- Create, test and maintain LEA Product program code
- Provide assistance to LEA staff when they are unable to resolve a program, SQL database, or IT issue
- Occasionally contact customers as may be needed to clarify the intent of a new feature or resolve a problem
- Provide general programming assistance to other LEA team members as may be needed.

Requirements:

The programmer must have educational qualification and experience is a plus

- Programming / Scripting languages:
 - Win32 Visual C++, PHP, JavaScript (AJAX), MySql, SQL, HTML, CSS
- Visual Basic .NET and Visual Basic 6, including the use of program “classes” and creation of DLL’s
- Windows 2000/NT Server and Windows XP/2000/98/Vista
- SourceSafe, Crystal Reports
- ASP.NET
- MS Word, MS Excel, MS Exchange
- Networking/LANs, TCP/IP protocol
- Experience with:
 - Web development.
 - Linux, Database management. ODBC.
- Four Year Degree in Computer Science from an accredited institution
- Prefer five plus years of applicable experience

The programmer should possess the following traits:

- Enjoy working with others in a team atmosphere.
- Prefer a small business, fast paced working environment.
- Enjoy maintaining/enhancing code to meet changing customer/industry needs
- Have a “customer-service” orientation
- Patience
- Competent communication skills; written and oral. Prefer English as primary language